

Consultant: Digital resources in the classroom

Location: Morocco
Apply by: 12/10/2018
Start date: 12/17/2018 (TBC)
End date: 02/28/2019 (TBC)

Project description – About the project

This project will help develop the use of digital resources in Moroccan classrooms by mapping the content of LearnEnglish teens website to the Moroccan curricula. In partnership with the Ministry of National Education, open resources available on <https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/> will be mapped to Year 9 (3eme année collège) and Year 10 (1ere année lycée) of the English curricula.

The ministry will select a commission composed of eight English teachers, two education inspectors and an expert from the direction of curricula in the ministry. This commission will participate to a two day training workshop introducing the use of digital resources in the classroom. The commission will then work on creating a catalogue mapping the digital content to the Moroccan textbooks for the two mentioned years. The catalogue will be tested in four pilot classes to monitor its impact and make changes if necessary.

Role description – about the role

We are seeking an experienced education consultant to design and deliver a two day training programme in Rabat. The training will focus on the following:

- Strategies to integrate digital resources in the classroom to complement English textbooks;
- An overview of LearnEnglish teens website and a presentation of content available for the level and age of targeted students;
- Template of a toolkit for the mapping exercise;
- Practice session to initiate participants to the mapping process.

The consultant will also review the mapping catalogue after its completion and conduct a virtual follow-up meeting with the commission to give comments. The consultant will then be responsible of editing and finalizing the catalogue.
